Regional Championship (RC)

- Racers may compete for RC points at their first six events. Waived events do not count towards this total
 - MFDRS events can be waived for National and/or Regional points
 - To waive a MFDRS for National and Regional, two points waivers will need to be submitted
- Drivers are credited with points at their best four finishes of their first six claimed events
- The scored events used for the RC may include up to two (2) out of Region events
- To be eligible for the End-of-Year Regional Payout and Championship, a driver must compete in a minimum of four (4) events within their Home Region, including a minimum of two (2) Home LODRS events.

National Championship (NC)

- Drivers may earn points at their first ten (10) National Events and five (5) LODRS Events
 - MFDRS events will only be counted as National Events for the NC
- Drivers are credited with points earned for their best seven (7) National Event finishes and three (3) LODRS Event finishes.

Gold, Silver, Bronze Cards (this policy will retroactively apply to the 2025 season)

- Any driver attending a minimum of ten (10) TAD/TAFC events will receive a GOLD card
- Any driver attending a minimum of six (6) TAD/TAFC events will receive a SILVER card
- Any driver attending a minimum of four (4) TAD/TAFC events will receive a BRONZE card

JEGS Allstars

- All accrued 2026 Jeg's Allstars points from the North Central and Central will be combined
- Allstar points will be awarded at each In-Region event (MFDRS & LODRS)
- Racers claim their best five (5) finishes
- The Top 2 points holders in TAD/TAFC from each Region will be invited to Dallas for the JEGS Allstars
 - Previous year's champion will return as a blocker
 - If the previous year's champion does not qualify for Allstars based on current season points, they will be guaranteed a spot as a blocker
 - If the previous year's champion qualifies for Allstars based on current season points, the 8th and final spot will be awarded to the competitor, across all Regions, with the second highest points total that did not finish in first or second place (remains a blocker position)
 - The final spot will be awarded to the competitor, across all Regions, with the highest points total from the current season that did not finish in first or second place (this is a blocker position)
 - Only the two (2) racers from each region that qualified based on current season standings will earn JEGS Allstars Team points.
